Honorable Members of Department of Justice:

I am writing to say that as a senior citizen on a very limited income I am very thankful to Microsoft that they included everything (browser, instant messaging, etc.) on my computer when I bought it. Being a novice in technology, I wouldn't have known what to buy.

Please stop all this litigation against Microsoft and let them get back to the business of inventing innovations and items which will help the economy start booming again. I think AOL and Netscape are way out of line and their latest suit should be thrown out as just a frivolous suit to stop competition. Thank you for considering this request of an interested citizen.

Sincerely yours, Jean B. Fonner
